

95 Theses Political Cartoon

Directions:

Use the information you have learned about Martin Luther and the 95 Theses to create a political cartoon about the Protestant Reformation. Use the examples we have looked at in class to help guide your thinking about what a political cartoon should look like. Your cartoon should be relevant, accurately depict the thought of the people of the time, creative, and colorful.

On the back of your cartoon, write a paragraph explaining the meaning behind your cartoon.

Rubric:
