

Your Assignment: Imagine that you are an absolute ruler of a country in Europe during the Age of Absolutism. A new glorious kingdom has appeared and you want to be the ruler of it. To win the kingdom, you must submit a resume. I will be reading all of the resumes to declare who gets control of the kingdom.

You can choose:

Maria Theresa (Hapsburg)

Fredrick William I (Prussia)

Frederick the Great (Prussia)

Henry VIII (England)

Elizabeth I (England)

James I (England)

Louis XIII (France)

Louis XIV (France)

Philip II (Spain)

Ivan the Terrible (Russia)

Peter the Great (Russia)

Catherine the Great (Russia)

Requirements: Your resume should include at least

-Your photo

- AT LEAST five accurate facts about yourself (that are relevant to the job you're applying for)
- Your education/training
- Your values
- Your experience
- Relevant skills

And anything else that makes you sound appealing. (Do you come from a very noble family? What are you known for? Have you conquered land? Why should I entrust my kingdom with you?)

Tips:

1. Resumes should be visually appealing, however, they should also be professional.
2. You can use GoogleDocs, Smores, Infographics, Canva, etc. (Be creative! A canva resume will stick out much more than a Microsoft Word resume)

3.If you submit something with no citation, you will not get any credit for this assignment.
